

RNLA New York Training in Nassau

Nassau

Tuesday, October 24

6:30 p.m. (Registration)

7:00 p.m. – 9:00 p.m. (Training)

721 Franklin Avenue

Franklin Square, NY 11010

Join the Republican National Lawyers Association (RNLA) and the New York Honest Ballot Initiative for an exclusive election law training session in Nassau. This training will cover:

- Basic requirements of election law in New York relating to everything that happens on Election Day and in the weeks surrounding it;
- Recent developments in New York and New York City election law;
- Details of the law that a volunteer lawyer on Election Day will need to know; and
- Ethics issues faced by volunteer lawyers on Election Day.

Two hours of CLE credit, including ½ hour of ethics has been applied for. To RSVP for this training, or for more information on how you can help this November in New York on Election Day, email NYEvents@republicanlawyer.net, or RSVP online under the events section of rnla.org.

The RNLA seeks to promote open, fair and honest elections at all levels of American society in a non-discriminatory manner and to provide access to the polls to all qualified and eligible voters.
